

Ramonne Gardiner

Overview

Ramonne is highly experienced in commercial and civil litigation, including insolvency and restructuring, company, trust, contract and personal injury claims. He has appeared as junior counsel in both the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeal of The Bahamas.

In 2015, Ramonne was nominated for a National Youth award and in 2016, he was recognized by Professional Service magazine as being one of the top 40 Bahamians under the age of 40. In 2018 and 2019, Ramonne was a part of winning Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners (STEP) Moot teams serving as a research assistant and lead advocate, respectively.

Ramonne is a member of the Bahamas Bar Association, Young ICCA - International Council for Commercial Arbitration and AIJA-International Association of Young Lawyers.

Examples of recent work

- Acting for a borrower in obtaining an injunction against a lender restraining arbitration proceedings
- Acting for a Judicial Trustee in contentious trust proceedings
- Assisted with research in relation to an Expert Report in Jersey on issues of Bahamian company, charity and trust law
- Appearing as junior counsel for a resort developer in relation to striking out a claim initiated by a trade union

- Appearing as junior counsel in a multijurisdictional asset tracing claim in The Bahamas concerning numerous IBCs as junior counsel in an application to vary a trust deed.

Practice Areas

- Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Insolvency & Restructuring

Recommendations

Ramonne is a Recommended Lawyer in the The Legal 500 Caribbean, 2021.

Background & Qualifications

Ramonne was called to the Bar of the Commonwealth of The Bahamas in October 2015.

Ramonne obtained an Associate of Arts Degree in Law and Criminal Justice at the College of The Bahamas, in New Providence, and studied law at the University of the West Indies (Bahamas campus) where he earned his LLB with honours in 2013. He subsequently completed his Bar Training at the Eugene Dupuch Law School in The Bahamas, graduating at the top of his class in 2015 and winning several awards, including the Bahamas Bar Council award.

During his academic career, Ramonne served as president of numerous student associations and as Chairman of Legal Affairs for the Bahamas National Youth Council.

News & Articles

Potential impact of COVID-19 on leases in The Bahamas (2020)

Register of Beneficial Ownership Act "A New Day for Beneficial Owners" published by Mondaq and ILO (2019)

"Ramonne Gardener leads the winning LXP Team Moot" (news article July 2019)